

FROM THE DESK OF EDITOR

I feel immense pleasure to launch this Volume-III, Issue No. 1 & 2 (January to April & May to August, 2017) of Research Spectra published by Society for Rehabilitation and Youth Awareness (SREYA), Varanasi. It is a high quality triannual multidisciplinary International Refereed Journal aiming to publish research papers, articles, reviews and other general issues to promote the research works and provides an ideal forum to better transformation of knowledge in societal world.

The current issue consists of 23 outstanding papers/articles have focused around commercial issues, social issues, historical issues and other journal issues submitted by academicians and researchers who have been involved in research activities with an enhanced proficiency, including critical thinking, problem solving, team-working skills and new concept generation in numerous disciplines. Our journal provides a medium for scholarly communication in both print and online mode which can help us to enhance the intellect of modern society.

I would like to thank all the contributing authors for providing such a rich variety of research papers/articles on a broad range of exiting topics. I put my heartfelt thanks to our editorial team who really worked hard for the current issues of Research Spectra. I cordially invite valuable suggestions by the academicians, researchers, and readers for improvement in the quality of journal in future.

Thanking You,
